NEXA Lending

FOREIGN NATIONAL PROGRAMS

Own U.S. property.
Without a U.S. credit history.

Non-U.S. residents and visa holders: finance a second home or investment property in Texas or Colorado using your passport, visa and international assets.

Up to 75%	~25% down	Up to $3M	No SSN
LTV on purchases (best case, smaller loans)	as little as, on top-tier scenarios; more on larger loans	loan amounts (typical $1.5M–$2M)	or U.S. credit score needed on many programs

1 WHO QUALIFIES

- Non-U.S. residents and non-permanent visa holders with income or assets abroad
- Buying a second home or investment property (not a primary residence)
- No U.S. SSN or credit score required on many programs; some ask for a credit reference letter or U.S. tradelines if you have them
- Citizens of OFAC-sanctioned countries are not eligible

2 TYPICAL TERMS

- Purchase: up to 75% LTV; 70% is common
- Cash-out refi: typically 60–65% (up to 70% on some)
- LTV steps down as loan size rises (roughly 55–65% near $3M)
- Reserves: typically 6–12 months PITIA (lower on some smaller loans)
- Interest-only and 30-year fixed or ARM options on many programs

3 DOCUMENTS TO EXPECT

- Valid passport + unexpired visa where applicable (Canadian citizens don't need a visa; some programs accept the visa waiver program)
- International credit report or 1–3 credit/bank reference letters
- 2 months of bank or asset statements, sourced and seasoned
- Lease or appraiser market rent for DSCR; CPA letter for full-doc income
- Funds generally need to be in a U.S. account or wired to title before closing

4 PROPERTY & QUALIFYING

- DSCR option: qualify on the rent ÷ PITIA — typically 1.00 or better; some lower-ratio options at reduced LTV
- Asset-qualifier and full-doc options on select programs
- 1–4 unit homes, townhomes, PUDs, warrantable condos; non-warrantable condos and condotels on select programs
- Short-term rentals considered (typically with an LTV cut)
- Individual or LLC vesting on select programs

5 CLOSING FROM ABROAD

Limited power of attorney is available on select programs, and documents signed overseas are generally notarized by a U.S. embassy or consular official. I'll confirm what your lender requires before you travel.
