• Temple College is applied to every Temple scenario by default; whether a parcel in the Belton ISD, Troy or Academy part of the city is inside the Temple College district should be confirmed on the Bell CAD property search for the address.

• City of Temple offers a local homestead exemption of 20% (minimum $5,000), and Temple College the same; both are modelled when the homestead box is checked. Disabled-

Bell County parcels. The default stack is Bell County + City of Belton + Clearwater UWCD + the school district you pick. No junior-college tax is included: Temple College and Central Texas College apply only to parcels inside those districts - confirm by address.

• The City of Belton does not offer a local homestead exemption on the Bell CAD charts; over-65 owners get $10,000 from the city and $16,670 from the county.

• About 9% of Belton by area is in Salado ISD (pick it above if the address is there). Belton ISD does not offer a local over-65 amount on the chart. Over-65 tax ceiling (freeze) is not modelled.

Bell County parcels. The default stack is Bell County + City of Killeen + Central Texas College +

Clearwater UWCD + the school district you pick. A small sliver (about 3%) of Killeen by area falls in Salado ISD per the Census school-district layer - confirm by address.

• Killeen has no local homestead exemption on the Bell CAD chart; over-65 owners get $20,000 from the city (the chart lists the disabled exemption as freeze-only). Over-65 tax ceiling (freeze) is not modelled.

• Killeen ISD has the lowest school rate of the three (2026: 0.8622 vs. 1.0619 Temple ISD and 1.1177 Belton ISD).

Estimate only. Formula: for each taxing unit, rate x (value - that unit's exemptions). School exemption: $140,000 homestead, plus $60,000 state over-65. City of Temple and Temple College also give a 20% local homestead (minimum $5,000); Belton and Killeen offer no local homestead. Over-65 amounts differ by unit (Bell CAD chart). Not modelled: the over-65 tax ceiling/freeze, disabled-veteran and disabled exemptions, appraisal caps, and ESD, road-district, MUD or PID levies that apply only to some parcels. Parcels inside Temple city can be in Temple, Belton, Troy or Academy ISD, and a few Belton and Killeen addresses fall in Salado ISD - pick the school district for the address and confirm the exact taxing units on the Bell CAD property search. Temple College is levied on Temple city/Temple ISD parcels; Central Texas College on Killeen parcels; Belton parcels carry neither by default (Bell CAD chart).

Read with care: small cities have small counts, so rates swing year to year; rates are citywide and say little about a specific street or subdivision; and reporting changed with the move to NIBRS. Cities with heavy tourism, retail or highway traffic can show higher per-resident rates. For a specific address, check the police department's crime map or call the agency. Data we could not find ("Not available")

- Subdivision / neighborhood average sale prices (MLS only - ask the MLS for a neighborhood report).
- Zillow median sale price by ZIP is published only for 76502, 76513, 76542 and 76549 - other ZIPs show Not available. Zillow rent index (ZORI): Not available.
- Employer lists are undated (Temple and Belton EDC pages) or fiscal-year 2024 (Killeen ACFR). Counts may mix FTE and headcount and are not comparable across cities.
- TEA 2026 district ratings were read from the unofficial txschools.net mirror (snapshot Aug 15, 2026), not directly from txschools.gov (JavaScript-rendered) - verify before quoting. Per-campus TEA ratings were not collected; school lists use GreatSchools.
- Animal services, library hours and several non-emergency numbers: not researched or taken from search snippets only (marked "search result - confirm" on the cards).
- Thin samples: ZIP 76541 (Killeen) had only 21 closed sales; Belton had 24 reported violent offenses in 2024, so its crime rate is volatile. Belton redfin sold counts (64 in 3 months) are small.
- Property-tax calculator excludes MUD/PID rates (user input), special districts that apply only to some parcels, disabled-owner exemptions and the over-65 tax ceiling (freeze). Actual taxable value (CAD appraisal) can differ from sale price.

Add a city

All data is embedded in the page as JSON (`<script id="mmm-data">`). To add a city, add a key under `cities` with the same fields as an existing city - `acs`, `county_acs`, `pop2020`, `pop2025`, `redfin`, `zhvi`, `zillow_inv`, `taxes`, `employers`, `district`, `schools`, `crime`, `developments`, `growth`, `local`, `boundary`, `tracts`, `summary`, `playbook` - plus any ZIP polygons under `zips`. The picker and compare table update automatically.

- City-limit data: ZIP codes extend well beyond city limits (for example, only 13% of ZIP 76501 and 32% of 76543 lie inside the city), so ZIP and city statistics will not match.
- Seton South Campus opening date and River Farm final home count: Not available / not confirmed.
